

What do they THINKS?

Those agricultural farming systems could be one sustainable alternative to provide different type of produces that it requires less water.

agriculturist
75% of his water to carry out water system

huge demand on water resources

incapable to pay bank credits is one of the major problem related to water system additionally to agriculturists suicide

What do they DOES?

crop water requirement under greenhouse has been carried out in the temperature region

Maintaining a crop under flexible Environment

What do they FEELS?

Farming systems could provide different type of produces that it requires less water.

Less fertilizer and less space which will increase the yield per unit area.

What do they SAYS?

water system strategy to be progress

Conventional agricultural (Geoponic) practices can cause a wide range of negative impacts on the environment.

climatic conditions, need of water, budgetary bolst er and innovation are major water system related issue

most of the individuals in cities.

PAIN?

Regular cleaning of the root chamber

made up of high pressure pumps, sprinklers and timers.

GAIN?

cost effective method

high quality crop production